Behaviour Policy

- All children and adults are treated with equal concern and are made to feel welcome in my home. I aim to offer a quality childcare service for parents and children. I recognise the need to set out reasonable and appropriate limits to help manage the behaviour of children in my care.
- By providing a happy, well-maintained environment, the children in my care will be encouraged to develop social skills to help them be accepted and welcome in society as they grow up.
- I do not, and will not, administer physical punishment or any form of punishment with the intention of causing pain or discomfort, nor any kind of humiliating or hurtful treatment to any child in my care.
- I endorse positive discipline as a more effective way of setting limits for children.
- I keep up to date with behaviour management issues and relevant legislation by taking regular training and by reading relevant publications, such as [insert appropriate publications you read here, for example, Who Minds? and Nursery World].
- I expect parents to inform me of any changes in the child's home circumstances, care arrangements or any other change which may affect the child's behaviour such as a new baby, parents' separation, divorce or any bereavement. All information shared will be kept confidential unless there appears to be a child protection issue.
